MN350: Earth Day 2025

MN350 and Saint Paul Parks and Recreation will be holding an Earth Day event on April 19th at the El Rio Vista Recreation Center in Saint Paul to celebrate our planet, raise our voices for climate solutions, and connect with others working for a sustainable future. Learn more about how you can get involved with MN350 this Earth Day. For details and to register, visit: <https://mn350.org/earth-day-2025/>

Tuesday, April 22 | 1:30pm – 3:00pm CT
MN350: Earth Day 2025

Location: Minnesota Capitol Steps (or Rotunda in bad weather)

Join Friends of the Boundary Waters Wilderness and partners for a powerful Earth Day celebration and rally to protect our natural resources and communities. This coalition brings together advocates for clean water, climate solutions, clean air, public lands, wilderness preservation, worker safety, indigenous rights, and thriving communities.

The rally comes in response to policies that prioritize corporate interests over environmental protections. Stand with fellow Minnesotans to defend the Boundary Waters Canoe Area Wilderness and advocate for policies that safeguard our environment and public health.

Make your voice heard this Earth Day as we unite to protect Minnesota's precious natural resources and the communities that depend on them!

From The Climate Reality Project

Tuesdays at 6pm CT on April 22, May 6 and May 20
Climate Reality Biweekly Federal Defense Coordination Call

Join Climate Reality staff and Climate Reality Leaders from across the country to hear the latest updates on the state of climate policy at the federal level. Over the next few months, there will be massive fights over potential repeal of climate policy passed under the Biden Administration. Simultaneously, there is an ongoing fight over illegal climate spending freezes and attacks on the civil service, including climate scientists, throughout the federal government.

It is time for the Climate Reality network to work together to fight back. These calls will be a space to hear updates on the latest federal climate policy movement, learn about important climate policies at risk, and coordinate on opportunities to fight back.

Chapter members should have received a registration link from The Climate Reality Project. If you are a chapter member and need the registration link, email info@climaterealtymsp.com.

Saturday, May 17, 2025 | 1-4pm Eco Fair on Summit

Learn about climate action at an Eco Fair for the whole family. The event will feature everything from electric vehicles with test drives to solar installations and household electric appliances, vegetarian food trucks, and a kids' bike rodeo. Advocacy groups will educate attendees about key climate issues both local and statewide from the Boundary Waters to municipal composting and recycling. An electric fire truck and school bus will be on site to wow attendees.

Location: House of Hope Presbyterian, 797 Summit Avenue, Saint Paul

The Eco Fair on Summit is morphing into a major event, with many organizations participating, and they intend to make it an annual event! Our chapter will be tabling in the "big tent". If you are interested in helping, contact Tim Fremouw at info@climaterealitymsp.com.

From Climate Action Now:

Tuesday, May 20, 2025 | 6pm–7pm CT Save the Ice: A Climate Action Party

About two-thirds of Earth's fresh water is locked in the ice sheets of Greenland and Antarctica, while an estimated 270,000 square miles of glaciers persist at high elevations and latitudes on every continent except Australia.

As climate change drives rapid ice melt, sea levels are rising, and there are other impacts too—slowing ocean currents, lost opportunities to study the earth's natural history, and negative impacts to the plants, animals, and people who rely on these icy ecosystems.

Join us on May 20th from 6-7 pm CT to learn about the critical role that ice plays in our world and make a difference by taking action with the CAN app. You'll hear straight from acclaimed science fiction author Kim Stanley Robinson, and one of the world's leading ice-saving engineers, Dr. Leslie Fields of the Bright Ice Initiative. There's no cooler way to spend a Tuesday night! To register for this free online event, visit:
